Re: Mr Abdul Kayum Arain

As the Member of Parliament for Cambridge since 2015 and as a resident of Cambridge for over fifteen years I have seen first hand the excellent work of the Cambridge Muslim Trust and its Chairman, Mr Abdul Kayum Arain. I know that the non-profit community organisation is dedicated to supporting many people, especially younger people and the most vulnerable in society.

I know that the Cambridge Muslim Trust has worked in partnership with local service providers, such as the City Council, schools and the NHS, and formed important relationships with key Cambridge stakeholders such as ward councillors and the Police.

I am also always impressed at events such as the Mill Road Winter Fair when the doors are thrown open to the whole community in such a welcoming way.

With my good wishes for the future.

Yours sincerely,
